

BOROUGHES
in the Chester County Pleas,
CHES 29/1–22
© 2021 David Bethell

Mekehone

In about 1292 (above) we have:

et de duobus burgagiis quæ Rogerus Mekehone tenet;

Robert Clericus (Clerk) of Knutsford sued William de Tabley for detention of gage before the justiciar in eyre. His pledges were Roger Mekehone and William le Mercer.

11:133: 17 February 1299

Rob's cl'icus de Knuttesford, quer' de Will'o de Tabbeleg', de pl'ito det' vad', coram Justic' in Itin'e, pl' de ps' Rog's Mekemon, & Will' Le M'cer. ppl' de respond' Adam de Tabbeleg' & Will' de Modburleg' Ad que' die' p'd'cs Rob's, op. se. u^s. eu'. Et p'd'cus. W. fuit esson'. Et h'nt diem. &c'.

In the same year William de Toft accused Hugh de Pott of Knutsford and William son of Ralph de Bidenley of having disseised him of a messuage and an acre of land in Knutsford. Pott said that he had the premises from Bidenley; Bidenley said that Toft had enfeoffed him of them. The jury rejected this and ordered the property to be restored to Toft, with 6d damages, and Pott and Bidenley were amerced a shilling each. Roger Mekehone and John de Massey stood pledges for Pott.

11:402: 22 September 1299

m'ie. ij.s'.

Assi'a venit recogn' si Hugo de Potte. de Knottesford, & Will'ms fil' Rad'i de Bydenleg', iniuste &c', diss' Will'm de Toft de lib'o ten' suo in Knotesford, postq^am &c', vnde quer' q'd diss' eu' de vno mes' & vna acra t're cu' p'tin' in eadem villa

Et p'd'cs Hugo venit & dicit, q'd ass^a no' debet inde pcedere. Dicit eni', q'd ip'e ingressus est p'd'ca ten' p p'fatu' Will'm fil' Rad'i, & q'd nulla' fecit iniur' neq' diss' petit q'd inquir' p ass^am — Et p'd'cs Will's fil' Rad'i, dicit, q'd p'd'cs Will's de Toft feoffavit eu' de p'd'cis ten' p cui^s donu' & feoffam'tu'. ip'e stetit in bona & pacifica seis^a, absq' aliqua iniuria eidem Will'o de Toft inde facienda; & hoc petit q'd inquir' p ass^am Et p'd'cus Will'ms de Toft dicit, q'd ip'e fuit seis' de p'd'cis ten', quousq' p'd'ci Hugo & Will'ms ip'm diss' &c'. — Ideo cap' ass^a — Jur' dic' sup s'crm suu', q'd. p'd'cus Will'ms de Toft diss' est de p'd'cis ten' p p'fatos Hug' +xij.d'.+ & Will'm +xij.d'.+ — Ideo ip'i in m'ia p diss^a, Et p'd'cs Will's recu'pet seis^am sua' p vis' recogn', & dampna que taxant' &c'. ppl'm +Rog'i+ Mekehone & Joh'is de Mascy

— Dampna — vj.d'. — T. C.